As per SEBI Listing Regulations, shares of listed company can be traded ONLY in dematerialized form effective 1st April 2019. The company through its RTA has advised by letter dt.22.06.2018 of this to all its members holding physical share certificates.

Steps for converting physical holding into demat form:

1. Open a demat account with any of the recognized Depository Participant (DP).
2. The demat account to be in the same name (in case of joint holding in the same order) in which physical shares are held.
3. Surrender your original share certificate to the DP and obtain acknowledgement for same.
4. After due verification, DP will forward the original share certificate to the company or its RTA. If the details are correct, the original share certificate will be cancelled and the underlying shares credited to your demat account.
5. All your physical holdings in any number of listed companies can be converted using same Demat account provided the name of holder matches.
